THE MAHDI POISONED

By a Beautiful Member of His Harem Through Revenge,

THE FORMER REPORTS CONFIRMED.

The Daughter of a Wealthy Citizen of Khartoum Who Was Captured and Placed in the Harem --- Gave Her Master Poison in a Cooling Drink---Father Ohrwalder Gives an Account of the Suffering of the Nuns and Monks in Captivity-.. The Nuns Forced Into Marriage.

CAIRO, EGYPT, Dec. 11 .- In an interview to-day with Father Ohrwalder, the priest who was formerly connected with the Austrian Soudan mission, and who recently escaped from the Mahdists after nine years of captivity, the report that the Mahdi was poisoned is repeated. Father Ohrwalder says that after the Mahdi had tired of warfare he withdrew to Omduman to enjoy a life of licentiousness. Among the prisoners who had fallen into the hands of the Mahdi was the daughter of a wealthy citizen of Khartoum. The fanatical Arabs were struck by the beauty of the girl whose life they shared. They deemed that she would make a worthy addition to the harem of their leader, and she was ac-cordingly carried to the Mahdi and pre-sented to him.

The girl, however, was not content to

The girl, however, was not content to live the life of concubinage with the man who had been the cause of the destruction of her family. She brooded over her wrongs and determined on revenge. Like many of the people of her race she had considerable knowledge of poison. She selected for the mahdi a poison that, while it was sure to produce death, yet was quite slow to bring about the desired result. This poison she placed in a cool drink intended for the mahdi, and then she gave the cup she placed in a cool drink intended for the mahdi, and then she gave the cup to her master. He drank, never for a moment dreaming that she was medi-tating his murder. Everything worked according to the girl's calculations. Shortly after the mahdi had drank his cooling drink the effects of the poison began to manifest themselves. Arab doctors were summoned to relieve him. doctors were summoned to relieve him, but all the efforts were in vain. For eight days the mahdi lingored, suffering all the time the most exquisite agony and torment, before death relieved him of his pains.

In a recent interview Father Ohrwalder gave a detailed account of the terrible sufferings he and his companions had underged in their cartivity in the had undergone in their captivity in the Soudan. In April 1882, a Dervish force was sent by the Mahai to attack force was sent by the Mahai to attack the Austrian mission station in South Kerdofan and reduce it. The missionaries made a gallant defence, and for five months they stood out acainst the besiegers. At the end of that time, through the treachery of a native, the runs and monks fell into the insuls of the Dervishes. The runs were sent to the Mahdist camp at Rahad. Upon their arrival there they were nominally marrival there they were nominally mararrival there they were nominally mar-ried and forced to live the life of mos-lems. They accompanied the Mahdist forces to Khartoum and were present at the capture of that city. After that time they lived at Obdurman, nomin-ally free, but under the strictess sur-veillance. Father Ohrwalder and the veillance. Father Obrwalder and the other male members were carried to El Obeid. They were asked to em-brace Ismailism, and on refusing were kept close prisoners. In 1885 they were transfered to Omdurman. Here the Khatafia gave them permission to lead the life of freedom within the city, provided they followed the same mode of life as the Arabs.

The Storms in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Jan. 11 .- The heavy snow fall in the north of Ireland has greatly impeded. The railroads in many places are nearly impassable. In consequence for many clergymen to reach their churches yesterday and religious ser-vices were therefore not held.

At Tyrone, a funeral procession be-came lost in the storm and after many attempts on the part of those taking part in it to find out where they were, the horses became exhausted and it was found necessary to abandon the hearse in a snow drift.

Indignant at the Doctor. LONDON, Jan. 11 .- The Cairo correspondent of the Daily Newssays: "Much indignation is expressed here at the na tive doctor's treatment of the khedive's tive doctor's treatment of the knedive's case, and there is a general belief that the khedive's life might have been saved if proper medical skill had been applied earlier.

The local press is unanimous in declaring that British evacuation of Egypt is an impossibility now.

The Anarchist Riot in Neres.

Madeid, Jan. 11 .- There wers 1,000 men in the riotous anarchistic band that attacked the city of Xeres on Friday night. The rioters were mostly workmen from villages in the surround-ing country, where an active socialist propoganda has been carried on of late by German agitators. There are no signs that the affair was a republican

France Would Not Accept.

Paris, Jan. 11 .- The Journal Des Debats denies that the minority and youth of Abbas Pasha justify the pretensions of England to continue the occupation of Egypt, and says: "Europe cannot abdicate the right to interfere in Egypt nor resign necessary action into the hands of the English. France will never accept such a position."

The Bering Sea Hitch.

LONDON, Jan. 11 .- The Chronicle says: "It is probable that it was a lively recollection of the Alabama award which caused a hitch in the Bering sea which caused a fitch in the Bering sea negotiations. The representatives need beware of all ambiguous propositions from the other side. We believe, how-ever, that the obstacle will not prove insurmountable.

Snow Storms in Europe.

LONDON, Jan. 11 .- Severesnow storms continue throughout the kingdom. Traffic is badly interfered with. A blinding snow storm prevails in Vienna. A dispatch from Valencia, Spain, says that a violent storm has caused much damage there.

THE INDIANAPOLIS STRIKE.

The Street Car System Tied Up-A Sottlement Very Remote.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Jan. 11.—Everybody is walking to-day. The street car strike is still on with no prospect of a settlement. Over one thousand strikers are guarding the various stables and power houses to see that no cars are started. President Frenzel, of the street car company, this morning made a speech to the strikers at the College avenue car house, in which he offered to treat with a committee of strikers, provided that they first returned to work and get the cars running. This proposition was rejected, and President Frenzel says now that immediate steps will be taken to run the cars with new men. The police are held in readiness for any outbreak that may occur. Both President Frenzel and strikers are maintaining their respective positions with started. President Frenzel, of the street taining their respective positions with much vigor, and the prospect for an amicable settlement is remote.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Judge Colt Decide: that Common Goat Hair should be Admitted Free.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 11.-Judge Colt, of the United States Court handed down an important decision to-day involving millions of dollars. The court reverses the decision of the board of general appraisers, which assessed a duty of 12 cents a pound on common goat hair, and declares that it is en-titled to enter free of duty. The court bases its decision in determining the intention of Congress upon the prac-tice of the Treasury Department here-tofore. It holds that the intention of Congress, not the literal meaning of the words of the act, should determine the decision and declares that it could not believe lawmakers intended to place the prohibitory duty of 12 cents per pound upon goat hair unfit for comb-ing.

Cyrus Field's Troubles Increasing.

New York, Jan. 11-Mrs. Grace Field Lindley, eldest daughter of Cyrus W. Field, died this morning after a lingeringillness. This death coming so soon after the death of his wife (Mrs. Field died just seven weeks ago) has proved and additional trial to Mr. Field, and has increased the feeling of sympathy for him. Mrs. Lindley was fifty years of age and leaves six children.

WAR OR PEACE.

The Strike on the Aransas Pass Road Growing More Serious.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Jan. 11.-The strike situation looks gloomier than ever. The failure of the conference between the management of the Aransas Pass railroad and the representatives of the strikers to accomplish satisfactory results has tended to widen the breach and the belief is general that if in twenty-four hours some agreement is not reached the employes of the other roads centering here, who have pledged the strikers support, will tie up those roads rather than handle coal or freight of the Aransas Pass. The situation is gradually tending towards that point where either war or peace must prevail. The railways centering here have notified their employes that under the law, railway companies are compelled to handle each other's business and the employes have notified the company that they will not handle the Aransas Pass supplies or freight. results has tended to widen the breach Pass supplies or freight.
